

HOLD ME TIGHT® WORKSHOP

In French and English, designed for French-American couples and/or French-speaking expats

May 10 & 11, 2025 in Austin, TX

Are you tired of the same old conflicts? Do you feel that you and your partner have become more like roommates? Do you want to reignite the flame and rediscover the sense of connection you shared at the beginning of your relationship? Would you like to refresh and deepen your bond? Or do you just want to give your relationship a special boost? This weekend can change your relationship!

Celebrate Mother's Day with your partner by attending this special weekend: two days of intensive workshops for couples, based on the emotion-centered couple therapy designed by Sue Johnson.

This intimate event is limited to a maximum of 8 couples. Reserve your place today and get all the benefits of this retreat for two that will deepen your emotional connection and strengthen your relationship.

Who: Marylise Dumont is a French couple therapist certified in Emotionally Focused Therapy. Herself married to an American, she has extensive experience working with intercultural and binational couples.
